

a. will

b.

c. Choose the correct relative pronoun that can be used to join these sets of sentences.

d. ...

1. Please pass me the salt. It is right there on the table.
a. whose                    b. that                    c. whom                    d. who
2. These are the team members. I was talking about them.
a. which                    b. who                    c. whom                    d. whose
3. This is the man. He was defeated in the final round of the competition.
a. whom                    b. who                    c. which                    d. that
4. You are the class monitor. I will vote for you.
a. whom                    b. who                    c. which                    d. whose

D. Fill in the blanks with the correct word.

1. It has _____ raining a lot this week.
a. being                                      b. be    c. been
2. _____ your friends been in touch recently?
a. Has    b. Have    c. Are
3. Sonali _____ living in Paris since 1992.
a. has been                                     b. have been                                    c. being
4. You have _____ too hard since last week. Take some rest.
a. being working                              b. been work                                    c. been working
5. _____ it been raining in Pune as well?
a. Have    b. Has    c. Are

I. Join the sentences by using the relative pronouns who, whose, which, whom and that.

1. He is the doctor. He treated me for jaundice.
2. The police have caught the thief. He had stolen my wallet.
3. She is the minister. I will support her in her campaign.
4. Please pass me the laptop. It is lying on my workstation.
5. Did you speak to the man? You were trying to call him.
6. I have all the tools. I will require them for carving the wood.
7. These are the players. Their bats were stolen.
8. I want the book. She has bought recently.

G. Underline the transitive verbs, and circle the intransitive verbs in these sentences.

1. The cat sat on the grass in the sun and purred.
2. The parrot flapped its wings.
3. The children seemed tired after a long trek.
4. I eat biscuits early in the morning with my tea.
5. The man expressed his agreement with the decision.
6. Her daughter is the School Prefect.
7. We practised enough for the final performance.
8. The teacher led the students to the library.

E. Identify if the underlined verb is a helping verb or a main verb.

1. The Basus have rented out their old property to an embassy.
2. My grandfather does yoga every day.
3. The store has dozens of scarves and stoles to sell.
4. Did you submit your report card duly signed by your parents?
5. The police have identified the actual car thief.

C. Write the wherever required, or mark a cross (X).

- mouth organ, while I play
1. My brother plays _____ guitar.
  2. _____ Gateway of India stands tall and prominent in Mumbai.
  3. I prefer shopping in _____ mall near my house than in a crowded marketplace.
  4. Mrs Ray teaches us _____ English and _____ Social Studies.
  5. It is a story of _____ pirates who struck the ship on _____ East Coast.
  6. We might have pizzas for _____ dinner today.
  7. I have been to _____ Andaman and Nicobar Islands, and _____ Sri Lanka.
  8. _____ mango is a sweet fruit, but I find litchi sweetest.

A. Underline the verbs, and circle the objects of the verb in these sentences.

1. The students visited the factory as a part of their educational tour.
2. I served some fresh orange juice to my friends.
3. The baker delivered fresh bread at our doorstep.
4. The teacher returned my shabbily covered notebook.
5. The boy answered all the questions very confidently.
6. The guests were offered some coffee-flavoured biscuits.
7. The gardener threw the dry leaves in the compost pit.
8. The radio jockey is playing all my favourite songs today.
9. The dentist found some cavities in my molars.
10. My father organised the birthday party for me.

B. Rewrite these sentences by using the adjectives in the correct order.

1. Please share the recipe of Italian vegetable cheesy pizzas.
2. My mother loves to have oriental antique carved furniture around her in the house.
3. The hard-shelled sluggish tortoise crawled across the garden path.
4. That old flannel dirty piece is the duster for cleaning furniture.
5. The old graceful lady French is the ambassador's wife.
6. Do not forget to pick up some plastic small teacups.
7. I put all my cricket gear in a strong leather big bag.
8. Farmers these days employ excellent agricultural modern practices.
9. My little impatient furry dog snatched the bone from my hand.
10. She was a little old timid woman in her eighties.